Perfection is Our Passion

Who We Are

D&S Builders exceeded our expectations in quality, timeliness and creativity. They were very easy to work with and built our house as if it was their own. The owners were involved in the entire process, even after the job was completed.

Established in 1995, D&S Builders has continued to share a philosophy and passion for building memorable and timeless creations. Since that time, our tradition of fine craftsmanship has been highly visible in our individualized homes. No detail goes overlooked, as we give personalized attention to every home we build or remodel.

With every project, we offer a superior, more personalized level of customer service, backed by the latest products and technology in the industry. From custom design to completion and everything in between, D&S Builders is with you every step of the way.

Why D&S Builders?

Well versed in the demands of new home construction and remodeling, D&S Builders is dedicated to providing the highest quality workmanship and value to help you realize your dream home. Our philosophy is simple: satisfy the needs of the homeowner through the implementation of experience, accountability and integrity.

At D&S Builders, quality construction and honest relationships go hand-in-hand. By getting to know our customers, we can help you achieve a personalized, custom home that accommodates your needs, accentuates your style and agrees with your budget. It is from this guiding principal that a majority of our new business comes from referrals.

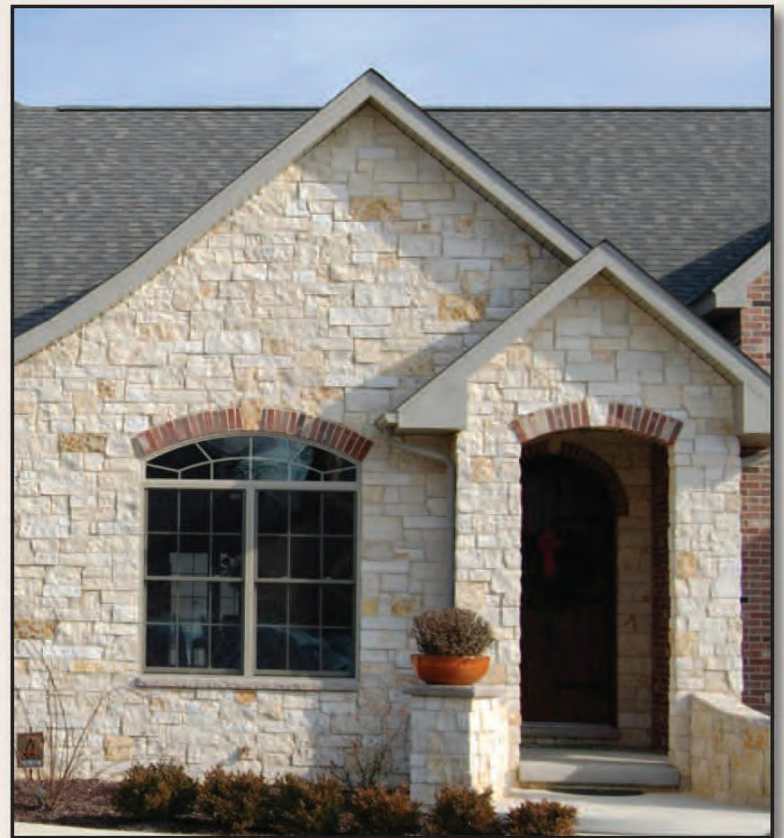

We are dedicated to remaining on the leading edge of building technologies:

- ◆ Energy Star Builders
- ◆ Certified Green Professionals
- ◆ Certified Graduate Builders
- ◆ National Association of Home Builders
- ◆ Home Builders Association of Illinois
- ◆ Springfield Area Home Builders Association (SAHBA)
- ◆ 2008 SAHBA Builder of the Year

New Home Construction

D&S Builders is paving the way with the latest trends in new home construction. With years of experience, we build homes that are innovative, well designed and solidly constructed. Additionally, all of our homes are responsive to the constantly evolving trends in home construction, including cutting-edge energy efficient options.

Our team of experts will work with you to handcraft a quality-built home that reflects your character and style, while delivering a lifetime of enjoyment with long-term value. At D&S Builders, we'll bring your plans to life... and then put it all together for a seamless finished package you will call home.

D&S Builders completed our new Energy Star rated lake home on schedule and within budget. The work was hands-on and the entire team was timely, well-mannered and experts in their field - we could not ask for more!

Remodeling

Let D&S Builders turn your dreams into reality. When you're ready to expand or significantly improve the look, efficiency and value of your home, we have what it takes to bring your project from concept to completion in a fashion that ensures the best in quality, durability and beauty.

We contracted with D&S Builders on a major home remodeling project, which included the entire exterior and a new kitchen. To say we are satisfied with their work would be an understatement. Thrilled would be a better description. We highly recommend them.

- Jim & Gail Austin, Pawnee, IL

D&S Builders can help you increase the value of one of your largest investments – your home. Simple updates, such as new fixtures, fresh paint or new cabinetry can truly improve the aesthetics of any room, allowing you to experience the joy and satisfaction of a home designed to fit your lifestyle.
